

Fluke DS703 FC Diagnostic Video Borescope

Diagnose issues quickly

Inspect difficult-to-access equipment without costly tear-down

Commonly used to inspect: pumps, turbines, gearboxes, compressors, engines, tanks, ducts, and panels

Fluke DS703 FC Diagnostic Video Borescope is a quality rugged videoscope with best-in-class image quality for when detailed inspections are needed in hard to reach areas.

Fluke DS703 FC Diagnostic Video Borescope

Detect contamination, debris, and other issues fast without need for tear down

Image quality

Best-in-class resolution viewable on a 7" color touchscreen

Ruggedness

Fluke worthy durability so you know it works when you need it to

Video

Option to save and share full-color video and images

Accessories

New and improved high-resolution options with adjustable lighting. Now also an articulating option.

Be prepared for any inspection with the right accessories

- FORWARD VIEW
3.8 mm scope, 1 m probe
- DUAL VIEW
5.5 mm scope, 1 m probe
- DUAL VIEW
8.5 mm scope, 3 m probe
- FORWARD VIEW
9 mm scope, 20 m probe reel
- ARTICULATING 180° PROBE
5.5 mm scope, 0.7 m

Fluke. Keeping your world up and running.™

©2024 Fluke Corporation.
Specifications subject to change without notice.
230691-en

Modification of this document is not permitted without written permission from Fluke Corporation